

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF SOUTH CAROLINA
FLORENCE DIVISION

Kathy Reaves,

PLAINTIFF

v.

The Wilcox Law Firm, et al.,

DEFENDANTS

Case No. 4:22-cv-01024-TLW

Order

Plaintiff Kathy Reaves, proceeding pro se, filed this civil action against Defendants The Wilcox Law Firm, J. Scott Kozacki, Mark Keel, and Henry McMaster. ECF No. 1. The matter now comes before the Court for review of the Report and Recommendation (Report) filed by the magistrate judge to whom this case was assigned. ECF No. 10.

In the Report, the magistrate judge recommends that Plaintiff's complaint be summarily dismissed because her allegations are duplicative of her allegations in Case No. 4:22-cv-00318-TLW-TER. See id. at 4. After the magistrate judge filed the Report, Plaintiff filed objections. ECF No. 12. This matter is now ripe for decision.

In reviewing the Report, the Court applies the following standard:

The magistrate judge makes only a recommendation to the Court, to which any party may file written objections The Court is not bound by the recommendation of the magistrate judge but, instead, retains responsibility for the final determination. The Court is required to make a de novo determination of those portions of the report or specified findings or recommendation as to which an objection is made. However, the Court is not required to review, under a de novo or any other standard, the factual or legal conclusions of the magistrate judge as to those portions of the report and recommendation to which no objections are addressed. While the level of scrutiny entailed by the Court's review of the Report thus depends on whether or not objections have been filed, in either case the Court is free, after review, to accept, reject, or modify any of the magistrate judge's findings or recommendations.

Wallace v. Hous. Auth. of City of Columbia, 791 F. Supp. 137, 138 (D.S.C. 1992) (citations omitted).

In light of the standard set forth in Wallace, the Court has reviewed, de novo, the Report and the objections. After careful review of the Report and the objections, for the reasons stated by the magistrate judge, the Report is ACCEPTED. Plaintiff's objections are OVERRULED, and this case is DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
